

The Intentionally Awesome Date Night Workbook

10-10

What would you do with $10 million and 10 years to live?

This conversation is designed to remove financial barriers and create time pressure to help you understand what energizes you.

By answering these questions with your spouse, you find out what energizes your marriage!

Answer the following questions together:

If you had $10 million and 10 years to live...

- Where would you live and why?
- What would your routine look like?
- What fun things would you do?
- What chores would you pay someone else to do?
- What outlets of giving would you pursue?
- What's keeping you from doing some of these things now?
- How could you be more intentional to do some of these things in the next 10 years?

Hold hands with your sweetheart and affirm one way you appreciate each other's work!
